

GERMANY SEES MOSCOW HANDS

In "Red" Revolt Which Is Now Menacing Government.

RUSS BOLSHIEVIKI WOULD CHANGE SCENE

Would Shift Headquarters for World Revolution.

"Reds" Would Prefer Germany as Seat of World Operations if Present Uprising Should Succeed—Some Fighting.

New York, March 30.—Three tremendous developments, affecting international relations in Europe, are causing the attention of the world today. Two of them involve the possibility of Russian intervention. Summarized, they are:

1.—The bloody conflict between the German Communists and the Berlin government, with the menace of civil war. It has been reported in Germany that Moscow is behind the German "Red" revolution and that the Russian Bolsheviks have a far-reaching plan to shift to Germany the headquarters of the movement for a world revolution. If the present uprising is successful.

2.—The Greek offensive against the Turkish Nationalists in the old Ottoman empire, which is continuing successfully all along the battle line. The Turks are being driven back towards Angora, the Nationalist capital in Anatolia, under the hammer blows of the Greek army. There is a strong possibility that Mustafa Kemal Pasha, who recently signed a treaty with Soviet Russia, may insist upon Moscow furnishing him military assistance. It is possible for Russian troops to enter territory held by the Nationalists through the Caucasus.

3.—Former Emperor-King Charles, of the old dual monarchy of Austria-Hungary, has made a sensational journey into Austria and Hungary, probably with the intention of stirring up royalist feeling to the fighting plith. Charles is said to have been ordered out of Hungary, but his present whereabouts are a mystery. So far, there is no sign of a royalist uprising in Hungary.

Many Killed.

Berlin, March 30.—Twenty-eight Communists were reported to have been killed in heavy fighting between the Security police and "Reds," today, at Gevelsberg in Westphalia. The police casualties were not given.

Two officers of the Security police and ten men were reported killed in a clash with Communists, near Goebbers.

The "Reds" were armed with machine-guns, which they used so effectively that the police were compelled to retreat.

Attempts of the Communists to terrorize the Berlin workers and bring about a general strike seemed, today, to have failed completely. The leaders of the "Reds" were reported to have planned riots and disorders to further their terrorist plot, but the city has remained comparatively calm. No outbreaks of shooting had been reported up to early this morning.

There were some minor outbreaks of shooting, but nothing like the general strike which has come upon industry.

Pickets established around public service and industrial plants by the Communists were dispersed by the police and many arrests were made.

The situation generally is unchanged.

While the "Green" police have seemed up some middle-German towns which had been hotbeds of Communist disorders, outbreaks are reported from the other regions. The good results achieved by the government forces in the Elbe valley were counterbalanced by new violence in Saxony and the Ruhr districts, where postoffice and banks were looted.

Dynamite stored in the Communist headquarters at Breslau exploded, destroying the building.

The "Reds" at Bremen cut all the long-distance telephone wires and the telegraph wires, isolating the city.

According to an unconfirmed report received by the Berliner Tageblatt, fifty Communists were killed in the fighting at Gevelsberg.

A clash, in which three persons were killed and five wounded, occurred between Security police and Communists, at Mannheim, near the French zone of occupation. Security police are patrolling the city.

It was announced that hundreds of thousands of marks had been

PLAN TO CROWN FORMER RULER

Charles To Occupy Hungarian Throne Soon.

HUNGARIAN MINISTERS REACH A DECISION

Allies Are Not Agreeable to the Old Emperor.

Spanish Government Is Friendly to Hapsburgs and Charles Moves Under Protection of the Spaniards, It Is Said.

London, March 30.—It is reported that the Hungarian ministerial council has decided to crown Charles, the former emperor of Austria, king of Hungary within two or three days, says a Central News despatch from Vienna, today. Despatches from other sources made a mystery of the whereabouts of the former emperor, but the Central News correspondent reports that Charles was at Steinamanger, near the Austrian frontier, consulting arriving army officers and civil officials.

Count Andrássy, former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister and Count Dithelm, who visited Charles at Steinamanger, informed the emperor-king that the allies would not consent to his return to the Hungarian throne, according to a despatch from Geneva. This despatch said that Austria was taking precautions to prevent Charles from remaining in that country. It was reported that warrants had been issued for the arrest of the person who enabled Charles to enter Austria from Switzerland.

A despatch from the Berlin bureau of the International News service, dated Tuesday, said that the Spanish consul at Vienna was arranging with the Austrian government to permit the return of Charles to Switzerland. This despatch added:

"Former Emperor Charles arrived in Budapest, from Vienna, by automobile, Sunday. He visited Colonel Lehar, brother of the famous Austro-Hungarian military composer, and called upon Admiral Horthy, regent of Hungary. Afterwards, the Hungarian government formally asked Charles to leave the country."

Forced To Leave.

According to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Vienna, Charles told Admiral Horthy that France did not object to his return to the Hungarian throne. The Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Vienna reported that Charles had been compelled to leave Hungary and that he did so under Spanish protection. Charles, it was said, had been warned not to return to Switzerland, so was planning to go to Spain, where he has relatives.

Charles was accompanied to Budapest by Count Hunyadi, former high steward of the Hungarian court.

Italy has decided to oppose the return of the Hapsburgs to the Hungarian throne, said a despatch from Rome, quoting the newspaper, Tempo.

Charles had been living at Prangins, Switzerland, with his family since early in 1919, when he abdicated the Austro-Hungarian throne. There have been frequent reports that he was plotting to return to the Hungarian throne. His old title was emperor of Austria and king of Hungary.

Surprise Complete.

Vienna, March 23.—[Through London, March 30.]—"Are you drunk?" demanded an aide-camp at the former royal palace in Budapest, when Count Jarmay went to him with the request that he announce the presence of ex-King Charles with all the formality of pre-war days.

The aide-camp refused. He could not believe that Charles had entered Austria-Hungary. His incredulity was typical of that expressed by all other classes of people in Budapest and Vienna when the news came out that Charles had slipped over the frontier, from Switzerland, into the country he once ruled as emperor-king.

The surprise of the populace has not yet died. It is now mixed with keen curiosity over the effect of Charles' unexpected and sensational visit.

Charles made his first appearance in Hungary at a dinner given, Saturday night, by Premier Teleki, at Szebenmihely. Colonel Lehar, the royalist commander of the district, was among the guests present.

The following night—Sunday—Charles proceeded to Budapest by motor car. He was accompanied by

INDIANS AND PERSIANS ALLEGED SAME RACE

Professor Bernard Geiger, an authority on Indo-Assyrian languages, who recently arrived in New York from Europe, told of interesting discoveries he had made regarding the early ages. Professor Geiger said he had found proof that the Indians and Persians are of the same race.

FROST DAMAGE HELD SERIOUS

Fruit Crop in Southern Ohio Is Hard Hit.

APPLES MAY HAVE ESCAPED THE BLAST

Many of the Smaller Fruits Are Ruined—Freezing Temperatures in Sections.

Columbus, March 30.—Fruit crops in the southern half of Ohio were damaged by freezing temperatures which prevailed over the entire state Monday night. Secretary of Agriculture Shaw announced, but how serious the loss will be can not be told until the full effects of the frost are apparent.

Slight damage was predicted for northern Ohio, where buds were less advanced.

Peaches, pears, plums and cherries, brought into full blossom by the recent warm weather, probably will prove the worst damage, Shaw said. He pointed out, however, that in some sections, where the frost was light, it might have the salutary effect of thinning out buds on trees where they were too thick to bear perfect fruit.

The apple crop, not being so far advanced as other fruits, was probably little damaged, Shaw said. Other crops, with the exception of wheat, which might be somewhat thinned out, and alfalfa, possibly temporarily set back, were not harmed, the secretary asserted.

Advices from various parts of the state showed a general feeling among central and southern Ohio fruit men that the loss would be serious in all fruits but apples. Reports from the northeastern Ohio peach belt, however, were more optimistic, growers opining that the temperature had not damaged the crop.

General opinion, in Franklin, Fairfield, Clark and other central counties was that the damage would be "serious." Gallia and Meigs county fruit men estimated the loss in their and other southern counties at sixty-nine per cent, while farmers in Scioto thought the drop to twenty-two degrees had done some damage, but how much they would not say. Cloudy weather and use of smudge pots, which were kept burning during the night, were thought to have saved much of the fruit.

Owners of large commercial apple orchards in Athens county are hopeful that the freeze has not done the trees much injury. Bloom in these orchards has not advanced as far as the peach, sweet cherry, plum and pear orchards, where farmers say the damage will be enormous. Ice froze an inch thick.

Following surveys and reports from the latest fruit growers in southeastern Ohio, W. E. Stone, agricultural agent at Cincinnati, announced that the crop of cherries, plums, pears and peaches in that section would be a total loss. The apple crop, Stone said, may not be affected.

BALLOONISTS BELIEVED DEAD

Trapped in a Cyprus Swamp Near Apalachicola.

FISHERMEN IGNORE CRIES FOR RESCUE

And Pass Lost Men Without Identifying Them.

Seaplanes and Dirigibles Are Sent To Search Swamp in the Vicinity of Where Calls for Help Reported Heard.

Pensacola, Fla., March 30.—If, as now believed, the five naval balloonists who have been missing from the air station here since Tuesday of last week, descended in a Cyprus swamp, naval officers here today reluctantly admitted the further belief that they were dead.

It developed today that the report from Apalachicola that cries were heard coming from a swamp near the Jackson river, was given out by fishermen who had passed the swamp, last Thursday. They believed it to be a party of hunters signalling for a ride back to civilization and did not halt their boat, which had entered Apalachicola bay for bait. They did not know of the missing balloons.

It is the conviction of naval officers here that these cries came from the unfortunate balloonists. Accordingly, seaplanes and dirigibles have been dispatched to search the swamps in that section in the hope that the bodies of the men will be found. Telegraphic requests for any information were again sent to all lawns along the coast to Florida.

The big dirigible, C-7, again set out on a search, this morning. It is equipped with wireless.

AKRON MAN STABS HIS WIFE TO DEATH

Reports Killing to Police and Refuses To Give Motive.

Akron, March 30.—After walking the streets for two hours, last night, Edward Moffett, hollermaker, came into the police station here and told officers he was wanted; that he had, a few hours before, killed his wife. Moffett's composure caused police to doubt his story, but he was detained while police were hurried to the scene to investigate. The body of Mrs. Nero Moffett, thirty-nine, was found in a rooming house with more than a dozen stab wounds, throat cut and head badly battered.

Moffett told the police he had quarreled with his wife, last evening and after beating her unconscious with a chair, he had used the kitchen knife to make certain she was dead. Following the crime, Moffett told officers he put the knife in his pocket and walked the streets for two hours, meditating what he had better do. He finally decided to throw the knife away and give himself up.

Police have been trying for three hours to learn from Moffett a motive for the killing, but up to a late hour had not succeeded.

Kills Himself.

New York, March 30.—William Russell, twenty-eight, of Curwensville, who was employed by the National Bank of Commerce, ended his life, today, by shooting himself in the head, remarking he had made a "fool" of himself at the bank. He said he had nothing to do with handling money at the bank.

TO BE VISITOR AT WHITE HOUSE

Special French Envoy To Meet President Harding.

VIVIANI EXTENDED INVITATION FOR TODAY

He Meets Secretary of State Hughes at Noon.

Stated Viviani Will Express the Gratitude of France for America's Help in the War. A Possible Discussion.

Washington, March 30.—President Harding, today, will meet Rene Viviani, special envoy of France. Official denial is made that M. Viviani comes as a representative of the league of nations, or will attempt to advise the president with regard to the league-of-nations question. It is admitted, however, that the former French premier is prepared to give the president the views of France with regard to the league. If they are sought.

While in the United States, it is believed that M. Viviani will use his efforts to create a sentiment of resistance to Germany's reluctance to carry out the provisions of the treaty of Versailles.

President Harding's position is expected to be that of a listener. There has been no indication that the president is yet ready to disclose to M. Viviani, or anyone else, his policy with regard to the future course of the United States in world politics.

M. Viviani is not empowered to represent the league and according to Dr. Knecht, his secretary, has no intention of attempting to advise the United States as to its policy toward the league. While France, as a member of the league, would naturally be glad to see America joining M. Viviani feels that it would be a presumption for him to attempt to influence the judgment of the United States in this or any other connection.

As Spokesman.

As spokesman of the French government, however, and as a statesman who for years has been in closest touch with European affairs, M. Viviani will be prepared to give President Harding any information he may desire concerning the league, or other matters connected with the economic or political situation in Europe.

M. Knecht flatly denied that Viviani would discuss the question of American loans to France, or would urge cancellation of these debts. "M. Viviani's mission to the United States is one of international courtesy and the only debt he will discuss with President Harding is the debt of gratitude which France owes to the American people for their cooperation during the war," he said.

M. Viviani was presented to Secretary of State Hughes at noon, today. This afternoon, at 4:30, he will be presented to the president. Tomorrow, the former premier will attend the funeral of Cardinal Gibbons, in Baltimore and at a dinner at the French embassy, tomorrow night, he will meet Senator Lodge and other senate leaders. It is understood that several conferences between M. Viviani and senate leaders may be arranged.

RURAL RECREATION CONFERENCE SUBJECT

Various State Organizations Are Meeting in Columbus.

Columbus, March 30.—Plans for an enlarged field of activity in rural recreation work are expected to be made at a two-day conference opened here, today, by representatives of various state organizations engaged in this work.

Conference include Fred C. Croston, director of the Columbus council of social agencies, who is presiding; H. W. Large, Y. M. C. A.; P. M. Horton, Hamilton county; William Carl Hunt, American Red Cross; Miss Dorothy Greene, Richmond county; Dr. C. C. North, Ohio State university; Rowland Hayner, Cleveland Welfare Federation; Miss Freda Spring, Butler county; Miss Ruth Hill, American Association for Organizing Family Social work; Miss Lucia B. Johnson, Ohio Council on Child welfare and members of the Ohio Institute for Public efficiency.

Cony Is Mending.

Natchez, Mississippi, March 29.—Lieutenant Will Cony is mending rapidly, it was announced by his physicians, this morning, but how long he will live is not known. The patient is in a very weakened condition.

PLAN TO SPEED UP PROSECUTION

Washington, March 30.—The department of justice is making an investigation of liquor violation cases now pending in the federal courts, in an effort to speed up prosecution. Attorney General Daugherty stated today.

SINN FEIN PLOT TO DESTROY BRIDGES

London, March 30.—The police at Glasgow are investigating an alleged Sinn Fein plot to blow up railroad bridges in the great industrial and shipbuilding district of the Clyde, according to the Daily News today.

MOTOR SLEIGH MAY REPLACE DOGS UP IN ALASKA

This unique motor-sleigh is the invention of Frank A. Harner, of Alaska. The sleigh is constructed on the tank principle with "caterpillar" wheels of the tractor type. The driving wheels at the back are actuated by a twenty-two horsepower, four-cylinder motor, and the steering is done by means of the guide-wheel in front, operated by the driver from behind. This guide-wheel can be raised or lowered according to the depth of the snow. In trials the unique sleigh has attained a speed of thirty-one miles, and it can carry enough fuel for a journey of over 600 miles. It is thought that the new motor-sleigh will replace the dog sleds as a means of transportation in the frozen North. The sleigh is also designed to cross creeks and brooks.

RURAL POLICE BILL DEFEATED

Ohio House Turns Down the Harding Measure.

SENATE TAKES ACTION ON SEVERAL BILLS

Possible Fine for Drunkenness in Future $100—Measure Touching State Wards.

Columbus, March 30.—By a vote of forty-nine to thirty-one, the house defeated the Harding bill, which sought to provide for a statewide rural police force. The senate passed the following measures:

By Senator Norwood, Stark county, to increase the maximum penalty for drunkenness to $100, from five dollars and give justices of the peace jurisdiction in such cases.

By Senator Burke, Lorain county, providing for a municipal court at Lorain.

By Senator Deween, Miami county, providing for a municipal court at Piqua.

By Senator Culbert, Handlaky, authorizing probate courts to send insane, epileptic and feeble-minded persons back to the state where they reside and to prevent such persons from gaining a legal residence in Ohio.

By Senator Jones, Meigs county, authorizing two or more counties to unite in maintaining a county children's home and permitting smaller counties to abandon children's homes.

Second Money.

Columbus, March 30.—The house finance committee, today, had before it the Fouts bill providing for a levy of one-eighth of a mill for building fund for state universities. The bill provides for a levy for two years. It would provide $1,250,000 a year, of which $500,000 would go to Ohio State, $175,000 to Ohio and $175,000 to Miami, which is approximately on the basis of enrollment.

The measure was introduced after the finance committee found the general revenue fund of the state inadequate for the needed buildings at the universities. Governor Davis and legislative leaders generally have endorsed the bill. Although it does not satisfy all the current needs of the state universities, the Fouts bill would bring much needed relief.

In considering the levy it has been pointed out that the people of Ohio do not pay one cent in direct taxes for the support of higher education. Appropriations for institutions that carry on this work have been made from the general revenue fund previously, but the disparity in the fund and the increased needs this year have combined to render the usual procedure impracticable.

The taxation proposal of Governor Davis' citizens' committee, as modified and recommended for adoption by the house committee on taxation, Continued on Page Three.

STRANGE REPORTS REACHING GERMANY

Berlin, March 30.—Among the many strange reports from the United States that have found their way into leading German newspapers of late, is one printed by the Vossische Zeitung, that "according to a despatch from Moscow," the American government has requested the government of Latvia to grant safe conduct to 100,000 Americans "who are to be deported from America within the next few months."

MAN IS BROUGHT BACK TO REASON

Phenomenal Surgical Operation in Ossining Prison.

BULLET REMOVED FROM VICTIM'S BRAIN

Unfortunate Suffers of Suicidal Mania—Is Fully Restored to Normal Thought.

Ossining, New York, March 30.—For the first time in four years, Roman Leondowski, a convict, awoke, today, without suicide being his first thought. The warm sunlight that flooded his room seemed something, not irritating as in the past. He felt as if a terribly oppressive cloud had lifted from his brain—life seemed worth living once more. There is a reason. For four years, Leondowski has carried two bullets in his brain, received in a street fight at Schenectady. One of these bullets—the one that had disrupted his nervous system so that for the last two years he had to be confined, suffering from suicide mania—was removed, yesterday.

In the prison hospital, under the eyes of eight eminent surgeons, he was the subject of one of the most phenomenal operations recorded in medical annals. The man who performed it, Dr. William J. Chapman of Brooklyn, is himself an invalid. He achieved the feat sitting propped up in a wheel chair, pushed close to the operating table. So little hope was held out for the success of the operation, that before the doctor went into the room the patient received the last rites of the Roman Catholic church.

"I'm taking a fighting chance," Leondowski had said. "I'd be better off dead than as I am anyhow."

But he lives, today, and is glad of his life. Doctors are confident the operation has restored him to complete normal condition, mentally.

Dr. Chapman removed from the patient's head a section the size of a silver dollar, opened the brain casing, then deftly located the bullet with his fingers and worked it to within three inches of the inner

JAPS TO BUILD RADIO STATION

Will Be Most Powerful Wireless Point in Orient.

ARE FURIOUS OVER RUSSIAN ISLAND

Were Americans Seize and Hold Wireless.

Reasons Behind the Attitude of Japan Regarding Island of Yap and Seized German Cables Are Explained.

Washington, March 30.—Frustrated in their persistent efforts to oust the Americans from the possession of Russian island, the most powerful wireless station in the Orient, the Japanese have at last, despairing and have undertaken the construction of a powerful station in Japan proper, according to official advice reaching Washington.

Japanese naval engineers have begun the erection of a station at Chikuma, in Nagasaki prefecture, some 700 miles south by east of the American station at Vladivostok. When completed, it will be the Arlington of Japan and will be capable of communicating with all parts of the world.

Back of Japan's decision to build this new station is a record of several years of strenuous and futile effort to secure possession of the Russian island wireless, which is now held and operated by a few American naval officers and some thirty-five men recruited from the Asiatic fleet. The seizure and operation of the plant by American naval forces, despite Japanese protests, has been the source of constant irritation to the Japanese government since its seizure in Vladivostok.

Much of the trouble between the Japanese and Americans in the Vladivostok district could be traced back to the American seizure of this wireless station, according to naval officers. The ill feeling that admittedly does exist was manifested, not long since, in the shooting to death of Lieutenant William R. Langdon by a Japanese sentry.

The fact that our naval forces occupy and operate this powerful station is but little known outside official circles.

When the ill-fated Kerensky government capitulated, the situation of the small Russian garrison at the station became untenable and the Japanese were prepared to move in. The importance of the station to Japan could hardly be overestimated. It is not only the most powerful station in the Orient, but it is the only ten miles from Vladivostok proper, which Japanese troops and a few Americans there were occupying.

While the Japanese were laying plans to seize the station, the Americans moved in quietly and took possession. Whether the commander of the American forces acted on orders from Washington, or on his own initiative, has never been divulged. In all events, the Japanese were furious when they found the Americans in possession, according to naval officers.

The Japanese officials virtually demanded that the Americans vacate and give them possession. The Americans refused and have held the station ever since, in the face of persistent efforts to oust them.

The refusal of the Americans to get out is understood to account in some measure for the ill-feeling attitude which Japan has maintained in the controversy over the island of Yap and the Pacific cables.

The Russian island station, really belongs to Russia and it is expected by American naval officers that it will be returned to Russia, "as soon as we can get out our Russia fit," as described by one naval officer.

The Americans, it was said today, are ready to turn over the station to any responsible Russian government, but until that responsible government becomes apparent, the Americans are going to continue to occupy and operate the station. At all events, it has been determined that the station will not be delivered to Japan.

Little Symptom.

Charleston, West Virginia, March 29.—Little sympathy for the movement to abolish the state prison was evidenced in the house of delegates, this morning, when Delegate Manning, author of the measure, attempted to have the body consider its action, yesterday, in adopting the committee report recommending abolition of the bill.

ARE DEBATING TAX CHANGES

House Discusses Amendments to Ohio Constitution.

SOME FEATURES OF TAX LEGISLATION

Limits Placed on Tax Rates for Cities and Rural Districts. Prompt Action Expected.

Columbus, March 30.—When the house began its session, this afternoon, leaders planned to continue debate relative to the house taxation committee's joint resolution proposing a taxation amendment to the state constitution and to place the measure on its passage before night. The resolution proposes that Ohio voters, next November, amend the state constitution so as to provide that:

1.—Laws shall be passed taxing by uniform rule all moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, or otherwise, and alien real and personal property, according to its true value in money, but any species of property, the income derived from which is taxed under a general state income tax law, may be wholly, or partially, exempted from taxation under the uniform rule.

2.—Household goods, up to $500 for each individual, may be exempted from taxation.

3.—The aggregate rate of taxation, including any state rates shall not exceed twelve mills outside of municipalities, but fifteen mills inside municipalities, but law may be passed, authorizing additional rates to be levied in any taxing district for specific purposes and periods, upon the approval of a majority of those voting at a regular November election, in such district. No state tax in excess of one mill shall be levied on property.

The senate cities committee, today, recommended passage of a bill by Senator Davis, Butler county, authorizing cities, villages or counties to operate playgrounds, play fields, gymnasiums, public baths, swimming pools and indoor recreation centers and authorizing school districts to join the maintenance and operation of such activities and authorizing issues of bonds and levying of taxes for such purposes.

LOCAL MENTION

L. E. Fox, of Cleveland, naturalization examiner, is in the city today for a hearing this afternoon before Judge Grant E. Mouser. There are ten applicants for final papers.

Mrs. H. A. Love, of Windsor street, who has been a patient at the Jane Case hospital, Delaware, for the past few weeks, was operated on last Saturday. She is reported as recovering nicely.

Mrs. W. H. Craglow, of No. 870 east Center street, has returned from Flint, Michigan, where she attended the funeral of her niece, Mrs. Ward Cameron, formerly Miss Frances Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Brady, of that place.

Among the 2,062 tourists from Ohio registering at the Tourists Information bureau at Tampa, the following were from Marion: Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Arrick, Harry R. Benzler, G. W. Cromer and C. Gearhiser.

NO PROMISES ARE TO BE DEMANDED

Attorney General Talks of Case of Eugene V. Debs.

Washington, March 30.—Attorney General Daugherty's forthcoming recommendations on the appeal for a pardon for Eugene V. Debs, Socialist leader, will probably include recommendations with regard to general amnesty for political prisoners, it was indicated today.

The attorney general refused to say definitely whether or not he had discussed this matter with Debs on his recent trip to Washington, or whether Debs had made a plea for general amnesty.

The attorney general made it plain that whatever recommendations are made in the Debs case will not be based upon any promise of future action by Debs. "In any action I take in the Debs matter, I will impose no conditions of any character whatever affecting his liberty," the attorney general said. "The department of justice will not trade its opinion for a man's liberty in the Debs case, or any other case."

This statement was in reply to reports that Debs had been asked to promise not to devote his future life to preaching so-called Bolshevik doctrines.

TO REORGANIZE POSTAL SYSTEM

Changes in Postmasters Are Discussed Today.

HAYS AND PENROSE HOLD A CONFERENCE

Matter of Selecting a New Republican Chairman Occupies Some Time.

Washington, March 30.—Reorganization of the country's postal system and the replacement of Democratic with Republican postmasters, was discussed at a conference today, between Postmaster General Will H. Hays and Senator Penrose, Republican, of Pennsylvania, in the senator's office at the capital.

The selection of a successor to Mr. Hays as Republican national chairman and other questions involving the organization and direction of Republican national committee activities, with which Senator Penrose is prominently identified as the Pennsylvania member of the committee, also were gone into thoroughly.

The choice of a Republican postmaster for Philadelphia and another for Pittsburgh, was also the purpose of the conference. Until the return of Senator Knox, Pennsylvania's junior Republican senator, from Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, the filling of these two postmasterhips is not expected to be announced.

The appointment of a large number of postmasterhips among Pennsylvania communities, smaller than Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, is to be left to the Republican congressmen of that state, according to Senator Penrose.

Senator Penrose was one of the first to urge upon President Harding the abolition of former President Wilson's order placing all postmasters in the classified service. While conceding the "merit system" possessed good points, Senator Penrose contended at the White House dinner conference between the president and Republican leaders of congress, that the Wilson order may have been for the purpose of continuing Democratic in postmasterships after the expiration of the Wilson term.

Representative Philip P. Campbell, of Kansas and other Republican leaders of congress present, objected strenuously to the postoffice being thrown back into the spoils system. President Harding finally asked all those present who favored the rescinding of the Wilson order to hold up their hands and there were comparatively few hands which were not raised.

SAMUEL T. HURD IS HOST TO AD CLUB

Event Held at Plant of Power Manufacturing Plant.

Members of the Marion Advertising club were guests of Samuel T. Hurd at a buffet dinner at the offices of the Power Manufacturing company, Tuesday evening at 6.30 o'clock. An excellent dinner was served and at the business session resolutions of sympathy were adopted because of the recent death of A. J. Myers, a member of the club.

Mr. Hurd showed some interesting stereoscopic views of the plant and explained the advertising plans and system of distribution of the product of the plant.

DENIES RUIN OF MISSING MAN

"Apple-Blossom" Chorus Girl Sends Message.

CLAIMS DECEPTION

BY ENSIGN LYNAN

Young Officer and $22,000 Belonging to the Scout Cruiser, Chester, Being Sought.

Boston, March 30.—Miss Marquerite Lynan, the "Apple-Blossom" chorus girl, in a telegram to the Boston American, from Wheeling, West Virginia, today denies she led to his ruin Ensign Joseph J. Lynan, missing from the scout cruiser, Chester, with $22,000 of the ship's funds. The stage beauty makes common cause with the wife of the naval man who is living in her impoverished Newport, Rhode Island, home with her two children.

The "Apple-Blossom" girl declares she was engaged to marry Lynan after a whirlwind courtship of ten weeks. Like Mrs. Lynan, the chorus girl believes she has been deceived by the missing ensign.

Miss Lynan states she was given to understand by her married sweetheart that his wife had agreed to a divorce, that Lynan and his wife had been separated for two years. She was told by Lynan, she says, that the hands of Judge Sullivan, in superior court, Newport, Rhode Island, and that as soon as it was granted she and Lynan were to be married. "I have Lynan's letters to prove this," she said. "I tried to keep this information from the press to save the honor of Mrs. Lynan and the children," declared the show girl.

"Consequently, I am surprised that the wife should have made it appear that I had deliberately broken up the Lynan home. I do not believe that he took the money," she concludes, with a touch of loyalty. "As I saw no evidence during our acquaintance of ten weeks."

Miss Lynan declares that she has never received large sums of money from Lynan—money that the wife in Newport had been saving to send their children to college.

ANNUAL MEETING OF COUNTY FARM BUREAU

It Is Held at Y. M. C. A. Auditorium Today

A larger membership and stronger local township or community organizations were declared to be the two important needs of the Marion County Farm bureau by J. H. Woleslagel, president of the organization, in his report at the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon.

Mr. Woleslagel's report opened the business of the meeting and the report of the treasurer, J. P. Robinson, followed. The election of officers will be held this afternoon and two speakers are on the program. C. A. Dyer, of Jackson county, member of the executive committee of the Ohio State grange, will discuss taxation and taxes and Alfred Vivian, dean of the college of agriculture, Ohio State university, will talk on "Selling What We Grow."

This morning at 11 o'clock members of the executive committee of the farm bureau held an informal meeting in the farm bureau offices with Mr. Dyer, during which he answered questions regarding taxation. J. H. Larimore, of Columbus, publicity agent of the Ohio State Farm Bureau federation, is attending the meeting.

Mr. Woleslagel stated that the first attempt to organize the county on a $10 membership basis was made in the spring of 1920 and resulted in a total of 350 members. During that year, Waldo, Prospect, Pleasant, Green Camp and Grand Prairie attempted to maintain local organizations.

The president also stated that after endorsing the three-year membership proposal of the state federation a campaign was put on and netted 556 members out of a total of 1,326 farmers in the county, an increase of 406 members. This membership is divided in the various townships with Pleasant, seventy-eight; Montgomery, forty-six; Salt Rock, forty-seven; Grand Prairie, forty-three; Prospect, ninety-seven; Scott, thirty-seven; Green Camp, eighty; Waldo, sixty-eight; Big Island, seventy-five; Grand, thirty-eight; Bowling Green, forty-five; Claridon, 107; Marion, sixty-nine; Richland, eighty-seven; and Tully, thirty-nine. All of the townships excepting Grand, Montgomery and Richland have been organized and plans are under way for organization there.

Mr. Woleslagel's report also dealt with grain marketing, wool, milk producers' association, livestock marketing, wheat standardization, poultry, emergencies, including clover stem weevil, Hessian fly and corn root rot; soil improvement, boys and girls club work and home making work of the organization.

Circle No. 16, of the Epworth M. E. Aid society met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. T. Jones, of east Church street. Mrs. George Ray was a guest.

BOYS AT FISHING HOLES SURE SIGNS OF SPRING

A sure sign of spring. It didn't take this trio of fortunate youngsters long to dip up their old fishing poles from the woodshed and once again indulge in their favorite sport. It is very likely that from now until vacation time, the school teacher will have a hard time checking up on the frequent absence of her male pupils.

HELD TO ANSWER IN ARSON CASE

Two Women Lodged in Jail at Mansfield.

ATTEMPT IS MADE TO BURN A HOTEL

Authorities State One of Prisoners Makes a Confession. Hotel Owner a Suicide.

Mansfield, March 30.—Mrs. Edith Hill and Mrs. Eva Cleland, of Ash-tabula, are in the county jail, held to the grand jury on charges of arson preferred by Deputy State Fire Marshal Lawrence East, for an alleged attempt to burn the Commercial hotel at Butler, near here, Monday morning. Mrs. Hill is held on a bond of $1,000 and Mrs. Cleland, on a bond of $2,500. When the fire department of Butler reached the hotel, at 3 o'clock, Monday morning, they say they found the hotel on fire in fifteen different places.

John A. Hill, who traded his farm in Ash-tabula county for the Commercial hotel, committed suicide a few weeks ago, from brooding over what he considered a bad bargain. The authorities say Mrs. Hill confessed her part in the alleged arson and told them that her husband had planned to do this deed, but that she would not consent. The hotel, a two-story frame structure, was insured for $7,000.

CAESARIAN OPERATION FATAL AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Harry L. Ramer Dies Today—Child Born Dead.

Miss Harry L. Ramer, No. 717 south Prospect street, died at the City hospital at noon today, following a Caesarian operation this morning. She never recovered consciousness. The child was born dead.

Mrs. Ramer was born at Caledonia about thirty-seven years ago and her maiden name was Irene Irwin. She was married September 14, 1910, and her husband and a son, John aged two and a half-years, survive. She also leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Irwin, of Superior street, and two brothers, James Irwin, of Wadsworth, and John Irwin, of this city. Mrs. Ramer was a talented pianist and was very well known in musical and club circles, having been an active member of the Woman's Lecture-Roclet club. This winter she was elected president of the Woman's club and would have taken up her duties in that capacity next fall. She was also a member of the First Presbyterian church.

Women on Jury.

Newark, March 30.—Three women are serving on a jury in the common pleas court of Licking county, today, for the first time in the history of the county. The case in which they are sitting concerns the value of a second-hand traction engine. The women jurors are clerks from dry-goods stores.

SUPREMACY IN TRADE SOUGHT

Great Britain Driving Hard for Expansion.

PROVIDING CREDITS IN MANY COUNTRIES

Making Determined Effort To Sell British Goods All Over the World.

Washington, March 30.—Great Britain's effort to clinch trade supremacy in parts of the world has assumed new impetus, through heavier government support for exports, millions are being spent to buy the obligations of other countries, to provide credits for payment of goods, according to official advices here, today.

Besides negotiating the purchase in large amounts of the obligations of Greece, Belgium, Roumania, Finland, Czechoslovakia, Poland and other nations, as a means of providing domestic credits for English exporting houses, late reports are that heavy advances are being made to foreign buyers from the export credit fund, amounting to approximately 100,000,000 pounds. The British method by the use of enormous credits, officials declare, give that government a dominating hold in directing the course of trade with the countries named and ample evidence is at hand to show that similar features are to be employed in regaining a foothold in South American and other logical American fields.

Officials of the treasury, federal reserve board and war finance corporation manifested keen interest, today, in those and other adverse factors which are operating against American trade and expressed themselves as alive to the need of the adoption of a broad national plan among banking and foreign trade interests to meet the situation gradually becoming less favorable for American trade interests.

ISSUE BEFORE LABOR BOARD

How Much Does a Laborer Need To Live Decently?

RAIL LABOR BOARD TO DECIDE QUESTION

New York Central Wage-Reduction Case Being Heard in Chicago Today.

Chicago, March 30.—The question of how much a common laborer can live on decently, became an issue before the United States railroad labor board, today, with the beginning of the hearing of the New York Central wage-reduction case. The road has imposed a reduction of twenty per cent. on its unskilled employees.

The labor board is called upon to decide, for the first time in existence, just what reasonable wages are on their merits.

The New York Central employees are depending upon W. Jett Lauck, official economist and statistician for the railroad unions, to defend their rejection of the wage cut and establish that living costs have not been reduced to an extent which would justify the cut. Lauck will contend, for the unions, that the extreme drop in any case has not been more than 12½ per cent. and that living costs have not gone down more than an average ten per cent., at most.

Attorney J. Aronson will represent the New York Central in the hearing and will submit, he announced today, only the briefest documentary evidence.

WALDO GIRL FORGING AHEAD AS TEACHER

Miss Benedict's Picture Appears in Pittsburgh Paper.

Monday's Pittsburgh Gazette Times carried a two-column likeness of Miss Lucille Benedict, of Waldo, now in her third year as supervisor of music at Lisbon, this state. A special from Lisbon, accompanying the picture, states that Miss Benedict has organized singing classes in all the Lisbon school buildings and that in the high school she has formed a chorus, said to be the strongest of its kind in the county in which she is teaching.

Miss Benedict is a graduate of the Harding high school, class of 1918, and also a graduate in public school music in the College of Music in Cincinnati.

A man may be complete master of himself, and yet have nothing to boast of.

KENTUCKY STATUTE IN SUPREME COURT

Decision on Validity of Liquor Tax Is Asked.

Washington, March 30.—The Kentucky statute imposing a state excise, or occupational, tax of fifty cents a gallon on liquors or distilled spirits withdrawn from bonded warehouses within the state, again came before the United States supreme court, today, for interpretation as to its validity.

Charles J. Dawson, attorney general of Kentucky and John J. Craig, state auditor of public accounts, appeared for a rehearing of the Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse company and the J. & S. Firehouse company cases, in which an opinion of the supreme court, delivered by Associate Justice Brandeis, is held to invalidate the state tax laws. State legal authorities contended that no federal question was involved, that validity of the state statute had been upheld by the state court of appeals.

NEW ANGLES IN A MURDER CASE

Grand Jury Probing Charges of Attempted Bribery.

SONS OF ALLEGED MURDERER ACTIVE

Claimed They Try To Incite the Whites Against Negroes in Two Counties in Georgia.

Atlanta, Georgia, March 30.—The Newton county grand jury now probing into the deaths of eleven negroes on the Jasper and Newton county plantation of John Williams, today, diverted its attention to activities of three sons of John Williams. Williams is held in jail here in connection with slaying of the eleven negroes.

It is charged, according to advices reaching Governor Dorey, that the three young men have conspired to arraign the white residents of Newton county against the blacks, in an effort to strengthen the defense of their father.

The most important witness to appear before the jury, today, it was said, is a young man whose identity is being kept a secret. This youth, it was declared, will testify that he was offered a bribe, recently, by the three Williams boys, to give false testimony regarding the finding of two bodies of negroes in the Yellow river.

Following a conference between the governor and A. M. Brand, solicitor general of the Stone Mountain circuit court, it was stated that Judge Hutchison, of the circuit, will, either today or tomorrow, announce a date for starting Williams' trial in Covington.

Trial Date Fixed.
Atlanta, Georgia, March 30.—John Williams, planter, and Clyde Manning, negro farm hand, will be placed on trial in Newton county, Monday morning, it was learned, here today, from state officials. They are charged with murder in connection with the slaying of eleven negroes on Williams' plantation.

Governor Dorey has suggested that the men be tried separately, for each murder with which they are charged.

Plan Great Grain Pool.
Chicago, March 30.—A gigantic pool of the grain of the country to be sold through one great central agency, is the vision of farmer delegates assembling here from 17 states. Their hope is to eliminate some of the middlemen who take profits as the grain passes through their hands and to abolish grain gambling. The national conference convenes here April 6 at the LaSalle hotel.

Wound Proves Fatal.
Boston, March 30.—John F. McCarthy, who was shot during the barroom brawl last Thursday in which John B. "Larry" McLean, former major league baseball player, was killed, died at a hospital here, John J. Connor, the bartender who fired the shot, is being held without bail. He claims that McLean and McCarthy were intent on assaulting him when he fired.

Peach Crop Destroyed.
Pittsburgh, March 30.—Fully seventy-five per cent. of the peach crop is estimated to have been destroyed in the Franklin fruit belt, by the severe frost, Monday night and Tuesday, entailing a loss estimated at $3,000,000.

Dies in Hospital.
Columbus, March 30.—Complications caused the death here, today, of William B. Emerson, forty-nine, supreme counselor of the United Commercial Travelers of America and Canada, at Mount Carmel hospital.

Stock Market.
New York, March 30.—The stock market continued to show improvement at the opening, today, gains ranging up to over one point being made in leading issues. The rails were in active demand, Reading advancing over one point.

SOME LIQUOR CARGOES SAFE

Foreign Vessels with Liquor Can Touch America.

IMMUNE FROM "DRY" LAW ENFORCEMENT

Volstead Act Ignores Trade-and-Treaty Laws of Other Nations—Finding Today.

Washington, March 30.—Foreign vessels touching American ports with liquor cargoes, destined to other foreign ports, will continue for a while to enjoy immunity from search or seizure by "dry" law or customs agents, while in American territorial waters, despite the ruling of the department of justice that the presence of such vessels violates the Volstead law. The decision, reached today, by treasury department officials, holds in abeyance the status of such vessels pending further conference between state department officials concerning the trade-and-treaty rights which the Volstead act apparently ignored.

Regulations affecting so-called "in transit" shipments of liquors from one foreign country to another foreign destination, are now being drafted by the treasury. These regulations prohibit the transshipment of liquors through American territory and forbid customs officers to accept such shipments. The regulations are aimed chiefly to prevent the importation of liquors from Canada.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF LATE JOHN BURROUGHS

Services, Sunday, Will Be Simple and Private.

Poughkeepsie, New York, March 30.—John Burroughs, famous naturalist who died, yesterday, on a train enroute home from California, will be buried, Sunday, the day on which he would have been eighty-four years old, at Roxbury, in the Catskills, near the spot where he was born. Funeral services, which will be simple and private, according to his own wish, are to be held, Saturday afternoon, at his West Park home.

ROBBED OF SAVINGS IN LUMBER CAMP

Thirty Men Held Up by Robbers, Who Kill One Victim.

Richwood, W. Va., March 30.—Swooping down upon an unprotected lumber camp in a dense forest north of here a bandit gang murdered one man and escaped with approximately $18,000, the savings of the 30 men quartered at the camp, according to advices reaching here. Bloodhounds placed upon the trail of the bandits immediately after the raid failed to pick up a scent after an all-night effort and were returned to the camp. The camp is operated by the Cherry River Boom Lumber company. It is virtually cut off from the remainder of the world.

For Increasing Stock.
A special meeting of the stockholders of the Marion Tire & Rubber company has been called for the afternoon of April 12 at 1 o'clock to consider increasing the capital stock of the company from 25,000 shares of seven per cent. cumulative preferred stock and 5,000 shares of common stock to 25,000 shares of seven per cent. cumulative preferred stock and 5,000 shares of eight per cent. cumulative participating preferred stock and 5,000 shares of common stock. The call for the meeting was sent out today by C. W. McLaughlin, secretary of the company.

IN COMMON PLEAS

Jury Is Ordered.
Report of the commissioners as confirmed in the common pleas court Tuesday afternoon in the partition suit of William Furness against Eddie Furness Coleman and others. Election of the plaintiff to take the proceedings at appraisement was confirmed and the deed and distribution of the proceeds were ordered. Attorney fees under the rules were allowed Carhart & Warner, attorneys for the plaintiff, in the sum of $215.

FIREWORKS ARE CAUSE OF BLAST

Officers Gather Evidence in Chicago Explosion.

EIGHT KNOWN DEAD IN CHICAGO "GHETTO"

One Man Is Under Arrest and Others Are Being Sought. Searching for Bodies.

Chicago, March 30.—Five separate investigations into the explosion which, yesterday, took a toll of eight known dead and wrecked an entire block in the heart of Chicago's "Ghetto" are under way today. One man is under arrest and the police are seeking two others whose alleged negligence in keeping a large quantity of fireworks and explosives stored in a warehouse within the city limits is believed to have been responsible for the disaster.

William Singer and Nathan Schaffer, partners in the firm of Singer & Schaffer, disappeared after the explosion and are being sought by two police.

Max Singer, a nephew of William Singer, is being held.

The death list still stood at eight today, the bodies of six men and two women having been removed from the debris. It is the belief of fire authorities that two other bodies will be found. Four of the injured, who numbered sixty, are not expected to recover.

An alleged confession, made by Max Singer, that four men were at work manufacturing cannon crackers, torpedoes and other explosives and fireworks in the Singer & Schaffer warehouse, caused Fire Attorney Shirley High to place blame for the disaster on that firm. High declared that the firm had several hundred pounds of black gunpowder and saltpetre stored in the warehouse, contrary to the provisions of a city ordinance. City officials declare that Singer & Schaffer had been warned against continued maintenance of their fireworks factory within the city limits.

Police and investigating officials declared that manslaughter charges might be lodged against members of the firm.

Three of the dead have not yet been identified.

stolen from looted banks and post-offices were found in the clothing of dead and wounded Communists.

"Limited" demonstrations were reported from Dresden, the capital of Saxony.

The Prussian government passed the following communiqué at noon: "The situation is greatly relieved. Middle Germany is reported quiet. The general strike movement is failing."

A strike vote at the Berlin plant of the General Electric company resulted:

In favor of a strike, 1,540; against a strike, 8,090.

The Communist minority attempted to force the 8,000 workers into a strike. The 1,500 were driven into the streets, but the police prevented a battle.

Federal troops are guarding Bratterfeld and Sangerhausen.

Guards Resistance.

Washington, March 30.—The American commissioner at Berlin has his residence in the Wilhelmplatz, which has been surrounded by wire barricades as a precautionary measure, according to advices to the state department today. The reports stated that Berlin is quiet, but military control put in effect March 26, still continues.

RURAL POLICE BILL DEFEATED

probably will be voted on by the lower house of the assembly today.

The proposed amendment to the constitution if submitted to and approved by the people in November, would compel a state income tax, retain the uniform rule until a general income tax law is enacted, after which any species of property might be exempted in part or wholly from the direct property tax, and write tax limitations into the constitution. It was reported out as a substitute for the Silver resolution of a few weeks ago and is offered as an alternative to the uniform rule enforcement bill defeated by the house last week.

Senate leaders still refuse to agree on a date for final adjournment. The upper branch of the assembly, continued to act only on bills originating in the senate, sidetracking all bills coming from the house.

skull wall and slid it to the opening he had made. In another minute his forceps produced the ball; it was half an inch long and weighed one-sixth of an ounce.

Then the surgeon tried for the other bullet, but found it too deeply imbedded to warrant the risk of extraction. Nor is this misdeed in a position to affect London's mental condition, he concluded. The operation lasted twenty-two minutes.

Senator William S. Kenyon

After the Senate adjourns Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, will visit Ireland to obtain information of conditions there. Although Senator Kenyon has not prominently identified himself with the cause of Irish freedom, he is known to be in sympathy with it. He will be the first American official in recent years to undertake a study of the situation in Ireland at first hand.

Count Brody, Count Sigray and Count Jirmas. The entrance of the former king into the city that was once his capital and the seat of his rule of Hungary, was entirely unexpected—at least so far as the public at large was concerned.

Charles was greeted by Admiral Horthy, the Hungarian regent and by Count Witte. Admiral Horthy, after a few preliminary remarks, addressed the former king as follows:

"I have received my mandate as regent of Hungary, from parliament and I could not renounce it except at the will of parliament. Your presence here will raise the country and precipitate matters with the "little states"—Czechoslovakia, Jugoslavia and Roumania.

Charles was obliged to withdraw from Budapest and return to Szeged. At the time this was written he was unable to get papers to leave the country.

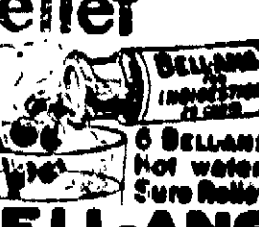

If there was a Russian plot connected with the entrance of Charles into Hungary, it is regarded here as an utter failure. It is declared that the relationship between Count Sigray and Charles probably will throw the political career of the former

VOCALION

New April Red Records.

Spring is on the way and there is no better means of bringing some of its brightness into your own home than with several new VOCALION Records.

The April list is filled with up-to-date surprises. The snappy four-rot records of those big hits, "Bright Eyes" and "Love Bird," are bound to start everyone dancing.

Margaret McKee, a clever young whistler now appearing at the Hippodrome in New York City, gives some bird imitations that you can't tell from the birds themselves. The month's popular song recordings include the latest numbers that everyone is humming these days.

For operatic selections, Giulio Crimi sings the familiar "Spirit So Fair" from "Favorita."

A beautiful sacred recording is "Abide with Me" by John Charles Thomas, the well-known baritone, and a choice array of standard songs by other VOCALION artists.

In short, you can't afford to miss hearing the

BESS C. SULLIVAN

Bees C. Sullivan

One of the first of the fast-growing list of Portals to be admitted to the bar in this country was Miss Bees C. Sullivan, of Chicago. After a short but successful practice Miss Sullivan was appointed assistant-prosecutor by State's Attorney Crowe. She is the first woman to be associated with the Illinois state's attorney's office. Miss Sullivan will assist in the prosecution of the case against Carl Wanderer, of Chicago, who was convicted last year of killing his wife and who is now being tried for the slaying of the "ragged stranger."

MISS MARGUERITE HEALY VICTIM OF TUBERCULOSIS

Funeral at St. Mary's Church
Saturday Morning.

Miss Marguerite A. Healy died this morning at 4 15 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Healy, No. 381 North Main street. She had been ill since last May. Death was due to tuberculosis.

Miss Healy was born April 13, 1897, in Chicago. She had passed most of her life in this city, where she had a host of friends. She was a member of St. Mary's church and a graduate of the parochial school, class of 1915. Following her graduation Miss Healy was employed as a stenographer with the Marion Steam Shovel company for five years. Previous to her illness she was employed as a stenographer with the Harding Publishing company. She was a beautiful girl, endowed with such a disposition that endeared her to all with whom she came in contact and made her friendship something to be treasured.

Aside from her mother, Miss Healy is survived by one brother, Paul Healy, of Columbus, and a large number of relatives.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's church, with a solemn high mass by Rev. Father Joseph M. Denning. Burial will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Only routine business was transacted at the regular meeting of Model Tent, No. 157, Knights of the Macabees, Tuesday night.

Are You House Cleaning?

Then you need an Electric cleaner. And no better is manufactured than the Royal. They clean by air alone, thus eliminating the danger of ruining the rug by whipping out the nap. High motor speed is necessary to develop high air velocity. High air velocity is necessary to efficient cleaning. Only in the Royal are these two features developed to the utmost. With every Royal cleaner we give a binding guarantee which absolutely protects the Royal owner against defects in material and workmanship. Thus we prove our faith in Royal Quality.

When you purchase a Royal you do not only have the satisfaction of knowing that you have the best cleaner that money can buy, but that you are absolutely protected in every way. Phone 5239 for demonstration.

VOCALION

New April Red Records.

Spring is on the way and there is no better means of bringing some of its brightness into your own home than with several new VOCALION Records.

The April list is filled with up-to-date surprises. The snappy four-trot records of those big hits, "Bright Eyes" and "Love Bird," are bound to start everyone dancing.

Margaret McKee, a clever young whistler now appearing at the Hippodrome in New York City, gives some bird imitations that you can't tell from the birds themselves. The month's popular song recordings include the latest numbers that everyone is humming these days.

For operatic selections, Gladio Crimi sings the familiar "Spirit So Fair" from "Favorita."

A beautiful sacred recording is "Abide with Me," by John Charles Thomas, the well-known baritone, and a choice array of standard songs by other VOCALION artists.

In short, you can't afford to miss hearing the

Women Lawyers

BESS C. SULLIVAN

One of the first of the fast-growing list of Portias to be admitted to the bar in this country was Miss Bess C. Sullivan, of Chicago. After a short but successful practice Miss Sullivan was appointed assistant prosecutor by State's Attorney Crowe. She is the first woman to be associated with the Illinois state's attorney's office. Miss Sullivan will assist in the prosecution of the case against Carl Wanderer, of Chicago, who was convicted last year of killing his wife and who is now being tried for the slaying of the "ragged stranger."

MISS MARGUERITE HEALY VICTIM OF TUBERCULOSIS

Funeral at St. Mary's Church Saturday Morning.

Miss Marguerite A. Healy died this morning at 4:15 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Healy, No. 381 north Main street. She had been ill since last May. Death was due to tuberculosis.

Miss Healy was born April 13, 1897, in Chicago. She had passed most of her life in this city, where she had a host of friends. She was a member of St. Mary's church and a graduate of the parochial school, class of 1915. Following her graduation Miss Healy was employed as a stenographer with the Marion Steam Shovel company for five years. Previous to her illness she was employed as a stenographer with the Harding Publishing company. She was a beautiful girl, endowed with such a disposition that endeared her to all with whom she came in contact and made her friendship something to be treasured.

Aside from her mother, Miss Healy is survived by one brother, Paul Healy, of Columbus, and a large number of relatives. The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's church, with a solemn high mass by Rev. Father Joseph M. Deering. Burial will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Only routine business was transacted at the regular meeting of Model Tent, No. 157, Knights of the Macabees, Tuesday night.

Daily Proverb—"Who receives should thank,

who gives should be silent."

Maybe the sole desire of Mitch. Palmer was to make medicine taking easy.

And coming right down to brass tacks, it's probable that the big end of the high cost of living is due to vanity.

Apologies of that claim against the United States, it will have to be said that the French are mighty easy creditors.

It might be just as well were some of the natives to apply the money they are expending for propaganda over here to the payment of interest on their debts.

We take it that the cold snap of the opening of the week was surely one of those backbaches of which we have occasionally heard.

The annual number of men you see down town at the luncheon hour may be taken to indicate that the annual home-dismantling operation known as spring house cleaning is on.

"A man may get a reasonably good pair of shoes these days," says the Canton News, "for the price of a quart." What have shoes come up again?

In the light of the showing made by that car down near Springfield, or wherever it was, Mr.
 Ford should get next to the fact that it may be the part of good business to stick to fivers.

Of course, if every woman acquitted of murder is going to break into the movies, juries will just naturally have to convict a few in self-defense.

"I suppose the boot-leggers figure it this way," remarked the fellow who lives next door on the way down town this morning—"having become boot-leggers they might just as well go the limit and become profiteers."

If we get the Utah situation as it is, the man out there who wants to buy the makings must ask for smoking tobacco, and not cigars.

Of course, the soda fountain people might hire a so-called physician by the year to write prescriptions for "medicinal" beer, but it's doubtful if the high-minded members of the profession would permit him to hang on in good standing that long.

It's just possible that the two or three attempts "to get" Mr. Lenin may have influenced him in reaching the conclusion that the "terrorism" business was being overdone.

Well, we see that we have the five-cent sandwich with us once more, but it will hardly do to hold that conditions are normal till we are able to get a ninety-degree section of an nine-inch pie at a like price.

Nicaragua is desirous of breaking away from the league of nations on the ground that the expense of membership is excessive. The cost of idealism usually is high.

If these stories of German revolution are worthy of credit, it's something like a thousand-to-one proposition that Grover Bergdoll is going to conclude that Germany is no place for him.

We can't help wondering whether the Buckeye paragrapher who suggests that income tax jokes may be laid away in moth balls till next winter was sufficiently affluent to be able to pay his tax in one installment or didn't have any to pay.

A wholesaler tells us that the increased price of sugar is unquestionably the result of manipulation. If such is the case, why wouldn't it be good better for the consumer to do a little manipulating of his appetite for sweets for a time?

It would hardly do to say that soviet rule has vindicated the reign of the late Czar Nicholas, but it may truthfully be said that it has demonstrated that worse conditions than those which obtained under Nicholas are possible.

More Speed!

HOPE FOR A BETTER DAY.

Stories of terrorism from Russia have long been an numerous and frequent as to take on the nature of the commonplace; nevertheless it always is impossible to suppress shudders at cold-blooded slaughter of human beings, no less when it is done by "proletarian" leaders to subdue an opposing faction of the people than when tending of the ruthlessness of the police under the old czarism. The proletarian Trotsky, in dealing with the rebels at Kronstadt, showed himself an iron dictator capable of cold-bloodedness the equal of that exhibited by some of the notorious royal butchers. Of more than 1,000 taken prisoners, Trotsky had all the military and civil leaders picked out and executed. No mild pacifying measures to be taken; death for all who stir up commotion against the soviet leaders.

From the standpoint of iron government the practice of killing of leaders of revolt may be best, but the point is that the Lenin-Trotsky
 "proletarian rule" promised to be different; it would deal so fairly and so gently with the people that they would recover from the hardships suffered under the czars. With the overthrow of the Romanoff czarism, humanity everywhere hoped that the dream of a better day for Russia was to be realized. Let it be devoutly hoped that, although delayed, it still will come and before long.

Meanwhile it can not be overlooked that in coldbloodedness the new czars continue to emulate the old.

But when all is said, what greater punishment could be inflicted on a man like Bergdoll than letting him stay in Germany, where they have little use for a lukewarm friend and no respect whatever for a man who will not fight for his own country.

LET US HAVE SERVICE.

That "we mean business" declaration by Postmaster General Hays in a speech in Chicago on the conduct of the postoffice department under the new administration is an outline of what has long been needed. Business in the management of the department is something we have not had for eight years. The postoffice department should provide service. That is its function. Money-making is not its primary purpose. If it can be made to pay and at the same time give efficient service, good enough, but service is the requisite. Prompt service is of the highest importance in business and on business interests falls the weight of inadequate facilities.

There is much to be done to bring the department up to a proper standard. The morale of the vast numbers in the mail service has to be restored. It fell to a low ebb under the late postmaster general. The required standard cannot be reached in a week or a month, but that effort to raise it is now under way offers hope that ere long when a letter is dropped in a mail box it may be done with entire confidence that it will reach the addressee promptly. For years there has been no such confidence, but delays that are inexplicable have been so frequent as to be almost the rule.

MENTAL BEFORE PHYSICAL.

In dropping from its rolls star athletes who became delinquent in scholarship, Princeton is adhering to the admirable rule followed by other great colleges and universities. That insistence upon class-room standing for athletes is not un-universal among all colleges in this country both great and small, is unfortunate.

Athletics are an important part of college training, but they are subordinate to the classroom. Whenever facilities forget or ignore this relation, moral decay begins. The lustre which championship teams cast on such institutions quickly fades and the very object which a false prominence of athletics is expected to accomplish is lost.

College athletics thrive best where every participant toes the mark in his class-room.

LIFE'S VAUDEVILLE.

(By James Ball Naylor)

OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF BABES.

Don't play children for fools.
 Like dogs, horses, and some other animals,
 they know far more than we complacent elders are in the habit of giving them credit for knowing.

A little lad of four years strolled into a neighoring grocery store. The grocer was busy. He liked the bright little chap; but he didn't want to be bothered just then. The boy was asking many questions. Finally he spied a box with slats nailed over the wide opening in it.
 "What's in that box?" he inquired.
 "A bear," said the grocer, impressively.
 The little fellow quickly drew away from the box.

"Will—will it bite me?" he asked tremulously.
 "It might," replied the heartless grocer.
 "You'd better run along home."
 The boy hesitated. So the grocer slyly scratched on the back of the box and emitted a gruff growl.

"Was—that the—the bear?" ask the lad,
 round-eyed.
 "Uh-huh," lied the grocer, almost exploding with suppressed laughter. He was greatly amused at his own display of humor—duly elated over what he considered his own shrewdness in fooling the boy.

But the little chap stood his ground; and the grocer wonderingly went on with his work.
 Presently the small fellow said:

"Let's play some more, Mr. Brown. Scratch on the box again—and growl!"

The puffed-up grocer collapsed like a toy balloon.

Out of the mouths of babes!
 Then consider the following anecdote, from
 the National Republican:

George, three years old, appeared on the Easter program at his Sunday-school in Greenwood, singing a solo. As he was leaving the church with his mother, a friend said to him:
 "George, you did fine."
 "I know it," he replied.

His mother, reproving him, said:
 "Why, George, you should not have said that to the lady."
 Whereupon George answered:
 "Well, mother, I guess I could hear my own voice."

Out of the mouths of babes!
 The worldly-wise mother would have had the boy speak disparagingly of his own vocal efforts, though he knew he had done well; she would have had him tell, or act, a polite lie. But George was unspoiled; he had to utter the truth.

Out of the mouths of babes!
 Little Rue, a tiny tot of three, had a new dress of which she was very proud—very fond.
 She got to wear it only on Sundays; and she found it hard to understand why she wasn't permitted to wear it on other days. One Monday morning she gravely said to her mother:

"My old dress needs pressing. Don't you think you had better put my new dress on me while you press my old one, mother?"

Out of the mouths of babes!
 "Come upstairs and let me wash your hands," said Winnie's mother. Winnie was four, and she didn't want to go. "Let her wash them down here," suggested Winnie's grandmother. "No," said Winnie's parent, "she must obey her mother."

"Well, why don't you obey your mother?" sobbed Winnie.

Out of the mouths of babes!

Though the prohibition he aren't plugged—

TWENTY YEARS AGO

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. F.

E. Leverton, of Scioto street.

A. J. Monroe and family, it was announced, would move to Gallon to make their future home.

Mrs. Sophie Sauer, the aged widow of Henry Sauer, residing on Windsor street, claimed to be the oldest living German Methodist.

Sanford Wilson was building a large frame building in north Greenwood street that, when completed was to be occupied by C. R. Clark with a stock of groceries.

APOSTOLIC MINISTERS OF OHIO MEET HERE

Conducting Their Mid-Winter
Convention—Rest of Week.

The Apostolic Ministers of Ohio opened their mid-winter convention on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at the Apostolic Holiness church. Rev. R. G. Smith, a mission worker from West India, gave an interesting talk on his work in the islands and Rev. H. Cochran of Rising Sun, Indiana, gave an address along the lines of home mission work. The meetings will continue the remainder of the week each morning and afternoon.

Rev. G. B. Kuep preached last night on the text, "Good Hath De parted and Answered Me Not." There were fifty persons at the altar at last night's meeting. Those assisting Rev. Smith were Rev. M. White, Delaware; Rev. C. D. Ryan, Chillicothe; Rev. M. M. Boush, Dayton; and Rev. and Mrs. J. V. Coleman, Cincinnati. There will be meetings each day at 8 o'clock in the morning, 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. Fred Painter of South Main street, who underwent an operation at Grant hospital last Thursday, is reported as improving nicely.

KING'S DAUGHTERS AND STATE HOME PROJECT

Financing of Bucyrus Institution
a Big Job.

The greatest effort to be spent by the King's Daughters of this city this season will be put on the financing of the Bucyrus home for dependent girls, the City Union of King's Daughters on Monday afternoon receiving the pledges of the various circles.

The date for opening of the home has not been definitely fixed, but will come in June or July, probably. This is a work in which all King's Daughters in the state are interested.

City Union members on Monday voted a small sum of money to the

MORRIS Z. SABBACK DIES AT BUCYRUS

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Sabback.

Morris Zehon Sabback, ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Sabback died at Monrovia hospital at Bucyrus at 11:30 Tuesday after an illness of four weeks with complications. He was admitted to the hospital two weeks ago. He was a student at Norton school at Bucyrus.
An operation had been resorted to after his admission to the hospital.

The body will be taken to the home of the parents on west Mansfield street, west of Spring street.

The father is proprietor of a fruit and candy store on west Mansfield street adjoining the Highway hotel and formerly lived in Marion.

St. Paul, Minn. March 30.—Five bandits entered the City Bank of St.
Paul, struck down the cashier and a woman teller with the butts of their revolvers and escaped with cash and bonds valued at $200,000. The bank is in the center of an outlying business quarter. Three patrons were lined up against a wall but were not otherwise molested.

The bandit leader knocked C. F.
Kalscheur, the cashier unconscious, while another robber struck Kal-scheur's sister Miss Agnes Kalscheur.
Neither was seriously hurt. The robbers escaped in an automobile.

LEADING AUTHORITIES NOW SHOW JUST WHAT TAN-LAC REALLY IS

Physiological Action of Principal Ingredients of Celebrated Medicine on the Human System Is Explained.

SUPREMACY CLAIMS WELL SUPPORTED

Many of the Medicinal Elements
Have Been Known and Used
Since Civilization First Began

Tan-lac the celebrated medicine which has been accomplishing such remarkable results throughout this country and Canada is composed of the most beneficial roots and herbs known to science. The formula is purely ethical and complies with all National and State Pure Food and Drug Laws. Altogether there are ten ingredients in Tan-lac, each of which is of recognized therapeutic value.

Many of these ingredients have been individually known and used since civilization first began, and some of them have been used and prescribed by leading physicians everywhere but until they were brought together in proper proportion and association as in the Tan-lac formula, humanity had not here-fore realized their full value and effect.

In referring to one of the most important ingredients of Tan-lac the Encyclopedia Britannica says:
"It has been the source of the most valuable tonic medicine that has ever been discovered." In referring to others of the general tonic drugs contained in Tan-lac the 13th Edition of Potters' Therapeutics, a standard medical text book states that "They impart general tone and strength to the entire system including all organs and tissues."

This same well known authority in describing the physiological action of still another of the ingredients of Tan-lac which is of value in treating what is commonly known as "a run-down condition" uses the following expression: "It is highly esteemed in loss of appetite during convalescence from acute diseases."

There are certain other extracts in Tan-lac which because of their effect upon the appetite, digestion, assimilation and elimination, improve the nutrition and vital activity of the tissues and more important organs of the body, and produce the state of general vigour which is called health.

The United States Dispensary makes the following comment regarding Tan-lac: "It may be used in all cases of pure debility of the digestive organs or where a general tonic impression is required.
Dyspepsia, atonic gout, hysteria and intermittent fever are among the many affections in which it has proven useful."

There are certain other listed foods described in the Dispensary and in other standard medical text books as having a beneficial action upon the organs of secretion whose proper functioning results in the purification of the blood stream passing through them. In this manner objectionable and poisonous ingredients of the blood are removed and the entire system invigorated and vitalized.

Tan-lac was designed primarily for the correction of disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. At the same time however it is a powerful reconstructive tonic and body builder for it naturally follows that any medicine that brings about proper assimilation of the food and a thorough elimination of the waste products must therefore have a far reaching the most beneficial effect upon the entire system.

Although Tan-lac's claims for supremacies are abundantly supported by the world's leading authorities it is the people themselves who have tried Tan-lac and who have gratifying results and have told other millions what it has done for them. That is why Tan-lac has become the real sensation of the drug trade in the country and Canada, and that is also why it is having the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world today.

Tan-lac is sold in Marion by the Dumble Pharmacy, in LaPorte by Siffrin's and in Waldo by Apt. Pharmacy.—Adv.

ALL SET! STUDENTS TO PUT ON PLAY TWO NIGHTS

"Garden of Shah" Tomorrow and Friday Nights.

"In the Garden of the Shah," a romance of Persia, a striking musical comedy of three acts, will be staged by the boys and girls' clubs of the Harding High school tomorrow and Friday nights at the departmental school auditorium. It is a modern, up-to-date production with a cast of forty.

The supervision of the play is in the hands of Miss Sara Taylor, music instructor of the Marion schools. Miss Taylor has worked steadily with the cast and orchestra, which is to furnish all the music, for over two months and it is said that the result will be a huge success.

Special work has been done upon the scenic and lighting effects. Charles Klinefelter, an artist in this line of work and well-known to Marion people, is supervising this feature of the production and a splendid setting of scenery which adds materially to the effectiveness of the play along with a special lighting system has made the setting all that could be desired.

In addition to this a great amount of care has been taken in the preparation of the costumes.

New York, March 28.—Pete Herman, former bantamweight champion, will furnish the feature bout at the Pioneer Sporting club, tonight, when he meets Willie Spencer in a fifteen-round bout.

Last Night's Fights.

At New York—Jimmy Kane knocked out Jimmy Blute in the third round.

At Akron—Alex Hart, of Lorain outpointed Willie Ames, of Akron, in twelve rounds.

Naming of Site.

New York, March 28.—The rebellion of Jack Kearns and the offer of Alexander Panthaus, theatrical promoter, to take over the Dempsey-Carpenter fight was, today, expected to hasten the naming of the site, by Promoter Tex Rickard. Kearns, in introducing Panthaus as a candidate to promote the fight, declared that Rickard's time limit for naming the site expired March 28. "I am fully aware of the difficulties Mr. Rickard has encountered," said Kearns. "but I am tired of being waltzed around. Dempsey has been idle for months because of this match and I would like to have the thing settled definitely." Panthaus declared he is ready to hand Promoter Rickard $50,000 for the privilege of taking the fight off his hands. He said that in case he should land the big fight he would name the site within twenty-four hours.

MARSEILLES NEWS NOTES OF THE PAST FEW DAYS

Sum of $16.55 Realized on

Tymochtee Grange Bazaar.

Marseilles, March 28.—[Special.]—Earlier was observed with a program Sunday morning following the regular Sunday-school services at the M. E. church. A marching song by the children was followed by a scripture reading by twelve children and the welcome address by Theron Lewis. Four children of the Primary department gave an exercise after which recitations were given by Anna Margaret Coughlin and Alice McIntyre. A song by the Junior department was followed by recitations by Jeanette Myler, Helen Irwin and Nell Kuzman. A song by the children closed the program.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Chandler and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Chandler entertained the following guests at dinner Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Latham, of Yokohama, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Latham and son, Richard, of Hardin county, Mrs. I. M. Clinger and son, Maurice and Richard, of Upper Sandusky and Miss Marie Chandler.

The sum of $16.55 was realized from the bazaar held Saturday evening by the members of Tymochtee grange. A feature of the evening was the debate on the question "Resolved, that war prices were more profitable than today's prices." Those taking part in the debate were Allen Lower, Harvey Peters, William Terry, Clay Smith and Paul Ruzman. Richard Dickson contributed several musical numbers during the evening.

He Was in Bad Shape

HOW "TIZ" GLADDENS TIRED, ACHING FEET

No more sore, puffed-up, tender, aching feet—no corns or callouses.

"Tiz" makes sore, burning, tired feet fairly dance with delight. Away go the aches and pains, the corns, callouses, blisters, bunions and chaffs.

"Tiz" draws out the acids and poisons that puff up your feet. No matter how hard you work, how long you dance, how far you walk, how long you remain on your feet, "Tiz" brings restful foot comfort. "Tiz" is magical, grand, wonderful for tired, aching, swollen, smarting feet. Ah! how comfortable, how happy you feel. Your feet just tingle for joy; shoes never hurt or seem tight.

Get a box of "Tiz" now from any druggist or department store. End foot torture forever—wear smaller shoes, keep your feet fresh, sweet and happy. Just think! a whole year's foot comfort for only a few cents.—Adv.

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers To Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. It is not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

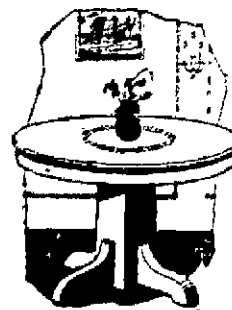

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.—Adv.

A Complete Showing of the Newest Furniture Creations

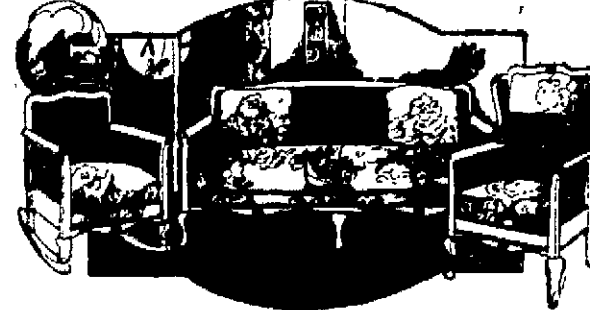

It is only within the last few weeks that the new designs in furniture have been coming from the manufacturers, and this is the first spring since before the war that we have had such a large and varied stock of strictly new patterns. During the past two weeks particularly we have placed on display hundreds and hundreds of beautiful new pieces of furniture.

Not only are these new styles more attractive than ever before but you will find them marked at prices that are lower than any seen since pre-war days. Wholesale furniture costs have been steadily dropping and now they have reached bed rock. If ever there was a time to buy the finest of furniture at a real saving, it is right now, at present low prices.

A Special Value in Dining Tables, $15.00

These handsome Colonial dining tables come with quartered golden oak 43-inch plank tops, and Monday's special price is the lowest we have seen these tables offered at for years. Just a small payment delivers one to your home and we will be glad to arrange terms to suit your convenience.

THIS NEW LIVING ROOM SUITE, $300

This splendid new living room suite is typical of the high character of the spring merchandise we have recently received from the manufacturers. It is carefully made in every respect with mahogany frames upholstered in a very fine grade of tapestry. The davenport has a cane back, is furnished with two pillow, and opens into a full sized bed. The price on this complete suite is absolutely rock bottom. It represents a most unusual value and one that you certainly want to take advantage of tomorrow. Convenient credit terms will be gladly arranged.

A Massive Brass Bed Only $36.00

This massive brass bed may be had in either Vernis Martin or satin finish. It has massive 2-inch posts and 1 1/2-inch fillers. Formerly these beds sold at almost double this price but we have cut them to rock bottom for Monday. Six months ago we could not buy them wholesale at so low a price.

NEW LEETONIA BLOCK

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA HOSTESS TO ABOUT 200

John H. Clark, Is Speaker on "Foreign Immigration."

MIDST RAPS AND SIGNS OF THE VARIOUS LODGES

Canby Lodge Accepts Pythian Sisters' Invitation—Meeting of Red Men.

Paramount Council, No. 37, Daughters of America, held a social and entertainment in the hall, Tuesday night, about 250 being in attendance. After a pleasing program of readings and music, Attorney John H. Clark delivered an address on "Foreign Immigration." Miss Emma Winkleton, of Bucyrus, the district deputy, gave an address on the work of the order. In a drill contest the team of the Woman's Benefit association of the Maceabees won the honors. A supper followed the program.

Canby Pythian Lodge.
Canby Lodge, No. 51, Knights of Pythias, met Tuesday night, with a large attendance and conferred the requisite rank on two candidates. Two applications were balloted on and plans were made to work the knight rank next Tuesday night. An invitation was accepted to attend the entertainment of the Pythian Sisters to be held tonight, and also the initiation of a class by Uniform rank, Thursday night.

Red Men.
At a largely-attended meeting of the Red Men, Tuesday night, the warrior degree was conferred on two candidates. Considerable business was transacted and plans were made to work the chief's degree next week.

Marion Temple.
Marion Temple, No. 321, Pythian Sisters, held a mid-winter picnic for the Knights and their families and friends in the lodge hall, Tuesday evening, over 200 being present. Following a picnic supper a musical program was rendered and the teams of the Pythian Sisters and Marion Lodge, No. 492, Knights of Pythias, gave fancy drills. Cards and dancing followed until a late hour.

Mrs. E. Vandergrift, of Kendle-ville, New York, favored the company with two piano solos and Vere Renzenberger sang two solos. After two vocal selections by Miss Alice Lawrence, accompanied on the piano by Miss Grace Cooper, the sextet from Marion lodge, sang two numbers.

WILLIAM M'KENDREE VANCE IS DEAD AT DELAWARE

School Superintendent Succumbs to Apoplectic Stroke.

An apoplectic stroke, sustained, Christmas night, caused the death at Delaware last night of William McKendree Vance, aged sixty-five, superintendent of the Delaware public schools and known here. For years he addressed teachers' institutes in all sections of the state. He belonged to various national educational organizations and was former president of the Ohio State Teachers' association, the Central Ohio Teachers' association, the Southwestern Ohio Teachers' association and the Ohio Teachers' Reading circles. During the past five years he was a member of the state board of school examiners.

A widow, two sons and two daughters survive.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Trial!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.—Advt.

Linoleum for Every Room in the House.

Not so long ago, linoleum was thought of only for the kitchen, pantry and bath-room. But now the Armstrong line alone comprises 380 designs, including parquetrys, jaspes, matting, carpet inlays, granites and several new plain colors.

You know that in Europe the artistic possibilities of linoleum have developed to such a degree that many fine homes have linoleum floors throughout. And now the idea of linoleum for every room is spreading in America.

We take this opportunity to invite you to come in and talk to our salesmen about linoleum for any room you may need it in. We have samples for the 380 designs that the Armstrong people make, so if you cannot choose from our stock we can easily supply it for you within a week's time. Now is the time to order it before the spring rush for linoleum sets in upon the manufacturers.

We will tell you all about Armstrong's Linoleum and its guarantee. Our prices are right, come.

Holding A Husband

By ADELE GARRISON.

The mean little structure of doubts and jealousies which I had been erecting ever since Mrs. Durkee had said little with me to the station, crumbled to bits about my unworthy love of Dicky's words. His ill-humor was too apparent for me not to doubt the sincerity of his protest that he had wished to sketch me with the roses instead of Edith, and had been compelled to take her because of the severity of my costume and the fullness of her hair.

I have had experiences enough of the sort with my husband, one would think, to prevent my giving way to the jealous folly which had been obsessing me for the half-hour preceding our return to Mrs. Durkee's. Many times it has been my misfortune to misjudge Dicky, only to be confronted by the same anti-climax which had greeted me when he had helped me from the car.

But on the other hand there have been many times when I have had real cause for jealous tremors, and I suppose the unconscious memory of those occasions is the real reason for the foolish and unworthy suspicions which come to me from time to time.

I suffer is much, however, if not more, when I find that I have misjudged Dicky, as I do when I have reason for anger. And I am always in an agony of remorse until I have atoned in some way for my doubting thoughts, even though Dicky may not have been aware of them.

So, at his ill-tempered outburst, I made the wisest of answers. "I'm so sorry, dear," I whispered. "If I had only known I would have worn the flannel hat and the frilliest gown I possess. For I would have loved to have you sketch me—you ought to know that, but I think it will be splendid as it is. Edith made a wonderful picture with these roses in her arms."

Dicky's eyes softened with the light that makes heaven for me. "Not the one my girl would have made," he whispered, just as little Mrs. Durkee came flying to the steps.

"Oh, you Dicky-bird!" she called. "Edith says you have the most wonderful flowers. You had, extra-ordinary, but I love you for it just the same! Come here and let me kiss you this minute."

She pursed her pretty lips, and as he bent above her, lifted her face to his kiss as a child would have done. Dicky, looking her clear of the floor in a bear hug, twirled her around in his arms and set her down breathless and disheveled.

"Aren't you horrid!" she pouted. "Madge, you ought to train him better. He's getting to be a regular roughneck. But come inside, let me see what you've brought and let me show you what we've done."

We followed her into the dining-room, where the little woman went into ecstasies over the roses and the cornucopia of sweet peas Dicky had brought.

"I'll put these where they'll keep cool until we wear them," she said, practically, gathering up the clusters of sweet peas, "and then we'll take the roses upstairs. I want to fix them in Lella's room first, and the rest we'll put down here. Dicky, you take these roses, and Madge, you carry these bowls. I wouldn't trust any man with anything that could possibly fall and be broken."

"Ungrateful little wretch that you are!" Dicky retorted, but he picked up the roses carefully and obediently followed me to the foot of the stairs.

"Stay right there, till I return," Mrs. Durkee called after us. "I don't want you to see it until I get there. I'll be back in a jiffy."

She was as good as her word, preceding us up the stairs with the air of an art gallery attendant about to exhibit the most precious thing in the collection. Outside the open door of Lella's room she paused to say triumphantly:

"There, what do you think of that? And we did it all since yesterday!"

Lillian and Edith were already in the room, trying the effect of a few of the pink roses in a tall, slender vase, while Marion danced around in ecstatic childish admiration of everything.

"It's perfect, my dear," Dicky said simply. "You could make a song out of it if you liked. 'A room like the heart of a rose!'"

Indeed the room answered to his flamboyant description, with the pink draperies and accessories we had all worked so hard to complete. I stole a look at little Mrs. Durkee, saw her eyes shining with happiness and knew that the subconscious resentment which she had felt toward her son's bride had been completely exorcised.

Indeed the room answered to his flamboyant description, with the pink draperies and accessories we had all worked so hard to complete. KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dark eyes with red sparkles. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent. of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for cod liver oil, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

GARIS' BEDTIME STORIES

UNCLE WIGGILY AND JACKIE'S MARBLES

(BY HOWARD E. GARIS.)
(Copyright 1931, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Once upon a time, as Uncle Wiggily was hopping through the woods, wondering what sort of adventure he might find, he suddenly heard some voices calling:

"Fey!"
"Dubb!"
"I had slips!"
"Goodness me takes drive and a pocket full of soap bubbles," thought the bunny gentleman to himself. "What queer talk! I wonder if that is the Fox or Wolf?"

The bunny peered through the trees, but he only saw Jackie Bow Wow, the puppy dog boy, and Johnnie Bushytail, one of the squirrel brothers.

"Oh!" said Uncle Wiggily, and his pink nose stopped twinkling. "Jackie and Johnnie must be playing some kind of a game." And when he hopped nearer he saw that the two animal chaps were playing marbles.

They had some red, white, blue and yellow colored stones, round, just like the marbles real boys play with, and Johnnie and Jackie put the stones on the ground and knocked them about. And the stones didn't mind it in the least.

"Hello, Uncle Wiggily!" barked

Jackie as soon as he saw the bunny gentleman. "Don't you want to play marbles?"

"You may have first shot," added

Uncle Wiggily.

A bad old Burglar Fox

Johnnie, brushing the ground nice and smooth with his bushy tail so his agate would roll straight.

"Thank you!" laughed Uncle Wiggily, "but I'd better not play marbles. If Nurse Jane heard about it she would say I'm growing younger, instead of older, with more sense. I'll watch you."

So Uncle Wiggily watched the dog-gie and squirrel chase playing marbles until, all of a sudden, along came Sammie Littletail, the rabbit, and Billie Wagtail, the goat, and Sammie cried:

"Let's have a game of ball!" And before you could shake a lollipop stick, away ran the boys, leaving Uncle Wiggily sitting alone on a log.

"Well, it certainly is nice to be young and play games," thought the bunny.

Then he looked on the ground, and saw where Jackie Bow Wow had dropped his bag of marbles.

"That's too bad," said Uncle Wiggily. "He'll miss them after the ball game. But it's too far for me to walk over there. I'll take the marbles to my bungalow. Jackie can get them tomorrow."

When Uncle Wiggily reached home a little later, and sat down to his supper of broiled carrots, Nurse Jane Fussy Wuzzey, his muskrat lady housekeeper, said:

"What's that queer rattling noise in your pocket?"

"Marbles," answered Uncle Wiggily.

"Well, the very idea!" exclaimed Nurse Jane. "A rabbit gentleman, at your time of life, bringing home a bag of marbles like a school chap! Wiggily, I'm surprised at you!"

"Oh, but Nurse Jane!" said Uncle Wiggily. "I found these marbles! They're Jackie's and—"

"Now now, Wiggily!" laughed Mrs. Fussy Wuzzey, shaking her paw at him. "I know you! You got those marbles to play with!"

"No, really I didn't," said the bunny, but Nurse Jane thought he was trying to fool her, and she kept teasing him all evening, asking him when he was going to start flying kites and spin tops, and the like of that.

Now in the middle of the night, when Uncle Wiggily and Nurse Jane were fast asleep, a bad old Burglar Fox made his way into the hollow stump bungalow.

Nurse Jane heard the bad creature prowling around downstairs, and awakened Uncle Wiggily.

"If you only had something to throw at the Fox, you could make him run away," whispered the muskrat lady.

Uncle Wiggily arose, and as he brushed past the chair over which he had hung his coat, something rattled.

"Ha! I have it!" whispered the bunny. "Jackie's marbles! They're round and hard, like gun bullets! I'll throw them at the Fox."

And just as the bad creature was creeping up the stairs, Uncle Wiggily threw two paws full of marbles at him, hitting the Fox on his eyes, his nose and his toes.

"Oh! Oh!" howled the Fox as he fell downstairs backward. "I'm shot! Oh, don't throw any more bullets at me! I'll go away!" And he did, not hurting Uncle Wiggily or Nurse Jane at all.

"Wiggily," said the muskrat lady, when all was still and quiet in the bungalow again. "I—I'm sorry I made fun of you about those marbles. Play as much as you like."

Uncle Wiggily laughed, and when Jackie came for his marbles next day, Miss Fussy Wuzzey gave the squirrel boy two sugar cakes. Wasn't that good?

I did not sleep very good last night, and I woke up this morning before daylight, and Jubilee was feeling bad because I was feeling bad. A dog is braver than a fella's mother, sometimes. When I had et breakfast me and Jubilee went out to the barn and I looked back in and said to the cow and her dotter and the horse that they might never see me again, and the horse was the only one that looked around.

We went over to the vacant lot by Miss Farmer's and the bunch was there, and Peanuts said, "There is Thomas Arklides, the fella that has never been licked," and Nibs said "That is not Thomas Arklides, that is the fella whose goat Fishmouth took home with him yesterday."

Then I said to Hopper would he come around by the unclassified school with me, and he said he would, and Banty said they all would, but I told them they did not need to. Then Freuchy asked me what I was going to do and I said I was going to go around and paint Fishmouth and then I was going to paint Nibs.

Me and Jubilee and Hopper started and they all followed us. When we got to the unclassified there was some fella in the yard, and Fishmouth was raseling on the ground with another fella, and he rolled the other fella over and just then I licked him as hard as I could where his pants was tight, and he jumped up, and then he seen who it was. We stood looking at each other, and I reached out and took his bat off and hung it down and said, "There is your hat, pick it up you mutt," and when he stooped down to get it I give him a slap on the ear that made his brains rattle.

When he stood up again he said "You didn't do that yesterday," I said, "Wednesday is my fighting day," and he did not make a move. But I seen him look out of the side of his eye to see if the school door was open and it wasn't, and I said for him to hurry up and fight because I did not want to be late for school, and then he said he did not have anything with him and then I asked him if he could lick me and he said he didn't think he could and I asked him if he didn't know he couldn't, and he said he did.

And then I asked him if he could lick Nibs and he began to cry and looked around for Nibs and Nibs was sneaking out of the gate, and Fishmouth started to chase him and he run, and Fishmouth run him all the way back to our school. We ran all the way, too, to see if he caught him, but he didn't. And we laughed and hollered all the way to school, and then me and Jubilee chased Fishmouth almost all the way back. At recess Banty asked me what was the matter with me yesterday and I said I was just chasing Fishmouth on But I wasn't. I do not know what was the matter with me.

I gave the horse twice as much oats as he ought to have, but the cow and her dotter did not get anything. Tomorrow is the day March goes out like a lion. I think my grandfather is wrong about it. I felt so good about Fishmouth that I did not mind going to bed early. There can't be no unclassified kid munky with me and get away with it.

How Bitters and Aromatics Build Strength

Italian Middleweight Champion of the World, Frank Carbone, says They Keep Him in Perfect Trim

Every man and woman in the world is a prize fighter. Life itself is the fight, and the prize is Success. And those who win the prize of life are best and foremost splendid physical specimens. If you are to win in your chosen work—whatever it may be—you dare not go through the battle unprepared, weak, thin, pale and inefficient. The bitters and aromatics—Dr. Senger's Angostura Bitters—and build up your entire system to health, strength, and the rugged endurance that wins success.

Physicians Endorse It
Dr. A. G. Senger, European Medical Authority, writes regarding Angostura Bitters, as follows:—
"It is able to render extraordinary service in restoring to a normal state a stomach and bowels which have become atonic and sluggish in their action. These Bitters are the most powerful stomachic and nerve tonic which we possess and therefore may be warmly recommended by medical men."

In Dr. Senger's well-known opinion, Angostura Bitters and aromatics are so skillfully combined that they first create a normal appetite and then stimulate the action of the digestive juices in such a way that you get all the good out of your food.

It aids the process of assimilation so that your food builds up the right kind of tissue—the tissue of true health and true womanhood, the tissue of health, strength, and rugged endurance.

Kings and Emperors Endorse It

Angostura Bitters was originated by Dr. J. C. H. Senger 32 years ago. Today it is used in every corner of the world. Kings and Emperors have publicly endorsed it and 23 International Expositions in every part of the world have awarded it the first prize. No other tonic has ever received a like number of awards or been granted such distinction by the crowned heads of Europe.

We do not ask you to experiment. Our absolute guarantee is behind every bottle of Dr. Senger's Angostura Bitters. If it does not do what we claim for it, your druggist will return your money. Don't wait. Start taking this great tonic and invigorator today. It's half a tabernacle in an equal amount of water, taken before meals and before retiring. A little every day will be added to make the little pleasant for ladies and children.

Karo

A baking secret that will interest every cook

ONE of the most difficult things in baking is to get a cake that has a real delicate flavor, and yet sufficiently pronounced to satisfy. This problem has now been solved.

Karo gives just the delicate flavor to a cake that appeals to refined women everywhere. Many chefs in leading hotels use Karo exclusively for sweetening cakes, pies and French pastries.

Yet Karo is much more than a delicious food daintly. It is one of the greatest of all energy-producing foods, made in a way that brings out every bit of its goodness and wholesomeness.

Do you know what Dextrose is?

Millions of Karo users everywhere will be interested to know that Karo is practically a predigested food. For Karo is largely what bread and cake and potatoes and all starch and sugar have to become before they can be absorbed and utilized as energy-producing foods.

This statement, from the highest medical and food authorities, must convince you more than ever that Karo is one of the best and most wholesome foods you could possibly give the family.

It helps make strong, sturdy boys and girls, with energy and endurance for study and play.

The story that convinced a million motorists

TWO test bottles from the laboratory! They show vividly what happens inside your engine—they show the cause of bearings that pound, of scored cylinders, of fouled spark plugs—they show the cause of 90% of the engine troubles you have to pay for.

The bottle at your left, half black, contains ordinary oil after use in an ordinary engine for 500 miles of driving. The bottle on the right contains Veedol, the lubricant that resists heat.

In the bottle of ordinary oil after use, almost one-half is taken up with black sediment—sediment formed during use. Under the intense heat of the engine—200° to 1000° F.—ordinary oil forms great quantities of black sediment.

Sediment has no lubricating value. It causes premature wear which cuts the life of an engine in two. This is the hidden toll taken by sediment in inferior oil.

Sediment is reduced 86% when you use Veedol. A million motorists who have seen this remarkable illustration of the effect of engine heat on ordinary oil now use Veedol exclusively. With Veedol in the crankcase most serious engine troubles are eliminated.

Have your engine flushed out to cleanse it of grit, sediment and thickened oil. Put in Veedol. Leading dealers have it in stock. Ask for a supply of Veedol to-day.

Veedol lubricants for every part of the car

Use Veedol lubricant for all parts of the car: VEEDOL for the engine (light, medium, heavy, special heavy, extra heavy); for the differential and transmission: VEEDOL TRANS-GEAR OIL or GEAR COMPOUND; for the tractor and truck: WORM DRIVE OIL, GRAPHITE GREASE, CUP GREASE.

BULGARIA HAS REAL DICTATOR

Stamboulsky Rules with an Iron Hand.

POWER AS GREAT AS RUSS DICTATOR'S

Is Trying To Reduce or Wipe Out All Large Cities—Wants Farming Villages

Paris, March 30.—A dictatorship as powerful as that established by Lenin and Trotsky, but of another kind—a dictatorship of peasant farmers—has been set up in Bulgaria, where the most intense social experiment since the war is on trial.

Stamboulsky, the "farmer Prime Minister," whose hurried figure attracted great interest when he came to Paris to sign the Bulgarian peace treaty, is its head. His aim is not only to assert the supremacy of the agricultural classes over the city shopkeepers and merchants but to force every man in Bulgaria who has no visible means of support to get to work on a farm and produce something. His severest critics charge that he plans to reduce Sofia to a mere village, in fact to wipe out all large cities, and to convert the entire country into a great group of farming villages.

Boris Is Figurehead.

The cell this new experiment the "Green International," to distinguish it from the "Red International" of Moscow. The strange part about it is that in the war's evolution from monarchy to a form of peasant Soviet government, a king has been left the nominal head of Bulgaria. Boris "rules" but no king was ever more of a figurehead. Stamboulsky could topple him from his throne any day without the slightest effort, but, instead, he ignores him. And he ignores, too, the very peasant parliament that put him in power when he disagreed with its decisions, according to responsible observers who have visited Sofia since the farmers' "revolution" swept the country.

One of these is Albert Londres, a Frenchman, who spent several weeks in Bulgaria investigating the "Green International."

"Sofia is not at all like Moscow," says Londres. "A stranger leaving the train feels the old aspects of the city. If he wants to buy bread he buys it. He can find himself a place to sleep without going to a Soviet police authority. No spite does his freest. The people are well clothed. But there is a dictatorship just as there is at Moscow, except that it is the dictatorship of the peasant."

Resigns Periodically.

"There is a parliament at Sofia, but Stamboulsky does not depend upon it. On the other hand, it only lives by his decree. He signs to parliament what it pleases him, but does not bother him. Periodically he hands in his resignation. Parliament goes from a mere vote of confidence and he goes ahead. He himself is not boastful on the contrary he realizes that he is trying a great experiment."

Stamboulsky has his own ideas about equality and legality. If he believes a beautiful home should be at the service of the state he seizes it and indemnifies the owner, but at pre-war value. Some of the owners, discontented with this process, demolished their buildings rather than turn them over to the nation. Stamboulsky thereupon has passed a law forbidding demolition of buildings without authority. "He has inaugurated a system of forced labor, but not like that at Moscow. Each week every man in Bulgaria must give at least one day's labor free to the country. He may help construct something plant a field, or work on the roads or bridges. Stamboulsky believes this is one way of keeping Bulgarians busy and away from liquor."

Dictator Well Received.

"As to economic measures—the state takes care of that. The farmer sells directly to the state. The consumer gains, but some of the peasants prefer the old system under the monarchy. Still they remembered that now their themselves are king. The peasant is chief and Stamboulsky is chief of the peasants."

Stamboulsky recently made a tour of 100 days visiting all European capitals, and was very well received. Upon his return it was believed he would proceed immediately to Sofia to take up the reins of office. Instead he went away to his farm, finally to emerge with a fresh lot of laws in the interest of the peasant.

FUNERALS

Pretyman Robt. Funeral.

The funeral of Maxine, the three-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pretyman, was held Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock from the home of the parents, on Elm street. The remains were taken to Nevada for burial. The funeral services were in charge of Rev. J. Byers Brice, of the Forest Lawn Presbyterian church.

MOVEMENT FROM FARM TO CITY TO CONTINUE

Only Quarter of Population To Remain in Country.

DEAN VIVIAN, OF OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY, SAYS

He Addresses the Noon-Day Luncheon Meeting of Chamber of Commerce Today.

A prediction that the movement from the farms to the cities will continue until only twenty-five per cent of the population of the country will be producing food was made by Alfred Vivian, dean of the college of agriculture, Ohio State university, at the weekly noon luncheon of the chamber of commerce in the Y M C A building today.

"This movement to the city may be exaggerated," Dean Vivian declared, "because we do not need as many men on the farms now as we did 100 years ago. The number of farmers is not always necessary, and for proof of this we need only look at India, with the largest percent of farmers of any country in the world always facing starvation."

"The farming of tomorrow will be done by fewer men, working fewer hours and by a type of men such as no other country but America can boast of. The alarming thing in this movement to the cities is that we first need of the farms in the hands of men past middle age or boys in their teens and we worry about what will become of the farms when their older men pass on without any young men to take their places."

What He Will Demand.

"The farmer of tomorrow is going to demand more income for shorter hours of work and if he does not get that we will wake up some day and find too small a number of farmers to produce our food. The best proof that the farmer is not making a large profit from his labor is that the men in the cities

PLAY BALL! THAT'S JOY FOR ALL MARION FANS

City Is To Have Strong Independent Team.

STEPS ALREADY TAKEN TO REPAIR GRANDSTAND

Marion Is To See Some Crack Out-of-Town Players Here This Season.

[BY FRED L. KRASER]

With the opening of the baseball season drawing at hand, local fans are interesting themselves in the sport from a local standpoint. Marion is to have a representative independent team this season that hopes to go the same pace as last season when it won all of its games except an eleven inning tie with Sandusky.

Steps have been taken for the repair of the grandstand and other improvements on the grounds at the park and the park commissioners have insured the completing of these by the opening game. Marion will open the season April 24 with the Ontario club, of the Michigan-Ontario league. This is a class B league and Ontario won the pennant last season. The team is now training and playing exhibition games through Ohio. It is under the management of Buzz Welzel, who formerly managed the Marion team in the Buckeye league.

The local management has booked the team at a big expense, to give the fans a touch of high class ball for an introduction of the season, and it is expected that the locals will play a brand of ball superior to that of last season and that the fans will support the team by attending the games, the proceeds, if any, going to the improvement of the park.

A number of high class teams have been booked to date, and an effort will be made to secure a major league team during the latter part of the season. Games have been arranged with Fostoria, the Columbus Monarchs, two years ago the contestants for the amateur championship, Lorain, Millard Center, Sandusky, Oberlin and the Gallo Tailors, of Columbus, while other teams of a high standard will probably be brought if attendance is sufficient to meet the expense of bringing them here. that he has signed a left hand pitcher to assist Jackman on the mound, and also that he has one or two prospects to probably strengthen the team in every department. He expects to take the players to the park next Sunday, weather permitting, to start getting into shape, and he is confident that the team this season will be stronger than last year.

CARL T. RUHL DIES IN TOLEDO HOSPITAL

Brother-in-Law of Mrs. F. R. Mann, of Marion.

Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Mann, of south Vine street, have received word of the death of their brother-in-law, Carl T. Ruhl, who died from cancer of the stomach in a hospital in Toledo this morning at 2:30 o'clock. He was forty-one years of age and manager for the Cape Fear Packing company, of Wilmington, North Carolina.

Mr. Ruhl's wife, who was a sister of Mrs. Mann, died in Wilmington a year ago last July, and they leave four children, three daughters and a son. Mr. Ruhl is also survived by his father, Henry Ruhl, and a sister, Miss Louise Ruhl, at whose home in Bluffton the children are now residing.

The funeral will be held from the home of the father at Bluffton, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

CITY IN BRIEF

Locate in Oklahoma—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Klunk and M. J. English Tuesday left for Duncan, Oklahoma, where they expect to locate.

Furnishes $100 Bond—Earl B. Raymond, arrested on a charge of passing a worthless check at the store of the People's Clothing company, was released this morning on a bond of $100 for his appearance for hearing Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Thief Is Busy—W. C. Beatty reported to the police this morning that a house being built by him on Davids street was entered Tuesday night and some paint, oil, tools and a flour register were stolen. Mr. Beatty furnished the police with a description of some of the stolen property and is advertising a reward of $25 for information that will lead to the arrest of the guilty party or parties.

Much Damage by Freeze—According to local gardeners and fruit growers today the damage to fruit in this vicinity by the big freeze of Monday night is the heaviest in several years. The freeze was more disastrous owing to the mild weather which preceded it, bringing the buds out in full blossom. The cherries, early plums and peaches are entirely destroyed and it is thought the late plums are injured to some extent. It was said today.

H. E. Monroe Resigns—H. E. Monroe, who has been associated with the local plant of the Cathedral Phonograph company since the time it acquired property in Marion about a year ago, today tendered his resignation to Harry Hildreth and Axel Akers, receivers for the company. The resignation is to become effective Saturday. The company, an Omaha, Nebraska, corporation, recently went into bankruptcy. Mr. Monroe probably will accept a position with an Eastern concern in the near future.
